

BE STILL : LOOK

Peter disowns Jesus

The Betrayal of Jesus, Giotto di Bondone, 1304

Sieger Köder

Jesus answered, "today - yes, tonight - before the rooster crows twice you yourself will disown me three times." But Peter insisted emphatically, "Even if I have to die with you, I will never disown you." And all the others said the same. Immediately the rooster crows the second time. Then Peter remembered the word Jesus had spoken to him: And he broke down and wept. Mark 14: 30, 31, 72

BE STILL

Peter disowns Jesus

PONDER

- What happens in the moment of silence after the cock crows?
- How does Jesus look at Peter?
- Have you experienced a “cock crowing” moment?
- Have you ever denied your capacity for failure?
- Take it to the Lord in prayer
